VI. METODOLOGÍA

This course will provide students with many English language opportunities. During this semester, students will practice what they already know and will learn new grammar, vocabulary, expressions and communicative skills. Classes will be run as discussions and interactive situations in which all students are required to participate. Attendance and participation count for your grade. There will be a number of lab sessions students are required to attend in order to practice the language. Personal commitment and self-study are also important. Students will have to work on the printed material (book) and will be asked to gradually develop the exercises in their online material.

Students will have the opportunity of monitoring their progress through a number of different activities and exams applied in class. Different activities and exercises are done in class to assess the student's different skills in the language(DD). There will also be Prácticas Calificadas (the average of quizzes taken after each unit) and exams (mid-term and final) which are the big evaluations in grammar, vocabulary, and use of language. The final exam includes an oral evaluation.

Plagiarism

Students' academic production is highly valued by UPC. Therefore, various situations that violate academic integrity are detailed in the Disciplinary Regulations, such as plagiarism in research papers, cheating on any kind of assessment, falsifying information, among other cases. In this regard, see the Regulations at: http://www.upc.edu.pe/RepositorioAPS/0/4/JER/REG_PREGRADO/Reglamento_de_Disciplina_2009-2.pdf.pdf

Students' academic production and honesty are central to university life. We should avoid plagiarism in order to enable a higher education based on original intellectual work.

Participation

Points will be awarded for every class in which a student attends and participates. Class participation not only means physical attendance but also active participation in class discussion, presentation of assignments on time, and having the class material. Absence from class does not constitute an excuse for not completing assignments. It's the student's responsibility to be prepared for the next class even if absent from the previous class.

Lateness upsets the rhythm of the class. Late arrivals (more than 15 minutes) will be counted as an absence.

Required materials

Students are required to bring the following to every class:

- Book
- Notebook
- Dictionary
